FORMAT

- Afternoon Garden Parties (AGP) are a casual, mix and mingle style event. The day has time for: Ceremony, Celebration drinks, nibbles, lawn games, photography, informal speeches, i.e. guests not all seated. It is exactly the same as a traditional format wedding it just ends at the time that guests would normally go and seat for the reception.
 - This format works best when the couple do their bridal photos as either a 'first look' in the morning or in the last hour so that they do not leave their guests. That is, have the ceremony and celebration drinks/ nibbles/ cake/ speeches together then the bridal party have photos and guests can either continue to mix and mingle or depart if they want.
 - AGP are restricted to the grounds, marquee and lower level of the building only.
 - There are a handful of cafe style tables set up, NOT seating for everyone. It excludes a 'sit down set up' with plates, cutlery etc.
 - AGP format is designed for finger foods delivered all prepared for service or grazing table style events or food trucks. It excludes use of the kitchen facilities.
